“ This day came to soon! I miss you so much! You were the best mother and friend. I miss our daily calls checking on each other and I miss you calling me back 3 or 4 times because you forgot to tell me something....you definitely had a big heart and your love for me and the rest of your family was evident. I love you mom, please continue to watch over us!

“ It sure is crazy how life turns into reality when you lose a loved one that was so close. I'm going to miss bingo and listening to you yell at people, little stuff like that is what made your personality pop. I'm going to miss those everyday phone calls checking up on us to make sure we have food and everything we need. I love you dearly always have always will. I know my girls will hear stories of you until I die and you may have never got to meet Peightyn but she sure will know who you are when she gets here.
Look over us up there I will save your seat when I go to bingo♡

Love you always
We will meet again

“ Dear Family of Barb,

I will miss my Dear Friend. Barb was so proud of her family and all of your accomplishments. She would always show your pictures and tell us the newest stories, all with her sweet laugh. She loves you all so much, and she always felt so blessed by your love for her. She was always the life of the party! Barb is a very caring lady, with a bigger than life personality and sense of humor...and of course her cute little accent. She has a heart of gold and would help anyone. I am honored to be her friend.

Love & Sunshine, Mary Kirk
