“ You and I worked together a long time David.
All of us at IDS Blast are going to miss you my friend.

Among my favorite memories are the 'classic' speeches you told us all at those couple of IDS Blast Christmas party's.

I also thoroughly enjoyed the jokes you'd tell me almost daily for years at IDS as I was passing through the paint department.

Rest In Peace David.

“ We are all going to miss you here at Katalyst! We shared some great laughs with you and it was great to get to know you on a personal level. I've never met a harder worker and someone that took so much pride in their work. You were so dedicated to doing it right the first time! RIP my friend! We will all miss you!

“ Dave,
I can't count the years I've known you....but I've known you long enough to believe this.

You loved my Sis, Bre, and Chase whole heartedly and would have done anything for them.

You didn't know a stranger.

You didn't have it in you to turn away if someone you knew needed help Defining things I'll carry with me, an attitude you've unknowingly shown me, and an appreciation of you.

Thanks for letting me know you Dave.

“ There are no words to describe the type of pain I'm going through right now, or the type of friendship we had!!
When I was a pain in the behind begging you to take me to the beach with you when we all lived in Florida, every weekend you went, you took me, even though all of your friends couldn't figure out why you would take me instead of trying to pick up girls. I overheard you saying look at how happy it makes her to come, why wouldn't I bring her? And that was the type of man you were, if you could, you would, no questions asked.

From my preteen years up to last week you kept me in stitches!! I knew if I were having a bad day, one call to you would change all of that! After telling you what was going on, I can still hear you say, if I were wrong, Liz don't be a dingbat!! Then you'd have some kind of other smart allec response, but whatever it was it would always make me laugh. There was no staying mad at you, you wouldn't let anyone. But I knew no matter what, you always had my back. I am feeling terrible about losing you so soon, but I'm truly feeling bad about being busy these past few weeks. The text you sent last week saying I'm always worried when I don't hear from you is still on my phone. That was the type of man you were, always worried about other people. I'm so grateful I got to hear the excitement in your voice last week telling me how excited you were to start your own business. I'm glad that our last conversation I heard you say you're in such a happy place in life. What I hate is that the next week you're gone. I wish you would have been able to see that dream come to fruition. I miss you my friend! I, like anyone who loses someone, wishes I had just one more day, one more phone call, one more anything just to tell you how much you meant to me, how much you meant to a lot of people. I love you David, you truly were my best friend, thank you for all of the laughs and memories, there will never be another person like you!! I wish I could be there!! But I know I'll see you again and when I do heaven will be in stitches!!

“ I will never be able to find enough words to say how I felt about Dave. I Just simply know that I love him with all I have! He will be with me in my heart forever!! I miss you sooo very much!!! You were my rock,,,,,you were invincible to me,,,,,nothing was ever going to take you away,,,,,you always, always found a way to make me laugh, even when I was really mad or sad,,,,,you always had my back, as I had yours. The first thing about you that really stuck with me and touched my heart was how much you loved and adored every last one of your nieces and nephews and how good you were to my kids! When you were with any of them, you treated them as if they were yours! I know they all loved you too! You are Just simply one of a kind Kidd. I soooo WISH you didn't have to go so soon!!! You had a heart of gold. I am sooo going to miss the walks out in the backyard and thru the woods with you and all our little last minute weekend get-aways. Everything was such an adventure with you,,,,most the time I had no idea what you were going to be up to next,,,,,and I loved every minute,,,,,I would give ANYTHING Just to have more precious time with you!! I am sooo incredibly grateful for the time I did have with you,,,,the past 7 years. I will never be the same without you!! I will never be able to say it enough,,,,I love you David Allen Kidd!!!! Always & forever babe,,,,,,til I see you again,,,,,
