“ I watched David grow up in the church but, got to know him well while working at the Hope Center for the past 2 1/2 years. He was truly a man of God and his sense of humor was refreshing. He always had a smile on his face and would often tell the corniest jokes or make goofy comments. It is still so surreal, however, on my bike ride that morning, I found myself asking “why God?” God’s response was not to ask why but, to ask “how”? How will David’s passing be used to further the kingdom. When I heard that Pastor Hubert took a breath that morning from weeping to tell a man, “God was good yesterday, God is good today, and God will be good tomorrow,” I thought that was the most beautiful testimony that shows where the Nolen Family’s hope lies. I will miss seeing David in his office along with his corny jokes and sense of humor. He was a good man and there is something good that will come out of this, even though we can’t know what that is at this time. We are praying for the Nolen family as they process their loss. Keeping the faith! Holly Ball

“ 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

I rejoice in the Lord that David is now worshipping at the feet of our Lord, and that one day as a brother in Christ, we will worship together once again. I pray continually for David's family that God's love, grace, and mercy will bring peace and comfort in your time of grieving. I also pray that God's hand will continue to rest upon the Hope Center and that God will be glorified by this awesome ministry. I give thanks I was blessed to work with David at the Hope Center, and will be honored to continue work there in however God will call and use me. I also give thanks for the blessings that God has poured upon the ministry at the Hope Center, including all who are blessed by this ministry, both residents and team! Praise the Lord, he is always faithful. He dearly loves each and everyone of us and shares the hurt and pain that we feel at this time. The Spirit will reveal to us the peace of heart that only God can bring us and the hope that we have through our Lord Jesus Christ, our Savior! Through Christ we new creatures, dead to the world, and alive with the hope of an eternity in heaven with Jesus and God! Amen

“ I'll never forget when Davidd took me into his family of God and welcomed me into the Church, I will; always remember the time when i was invited to the lake and we stayed up all night cat fishing and pulled out monsters but he always said we had to release them...i had only a very few memories with him, but they were always good ones, I always looked up to him especially at U-Turn it was a great time and he was a great MAN even as a teenager...blessed be his soul and prayers and nothing but love to his family

“ The pastor Hubert and Ms Tonia I don't think there's a words enough to express the sadness I have for your loss and at the same time the Elation I have for David's meeting up with Jesus. I cannot even fathom the sorrow that the family must be feeling at times my heart goes out to all the family. David's sisters and to his wife Stephanie and to all extended family church family. I send my most heartfelt condolences and I wish I could be there for his going home. David was and always will be a soldier in the army of God and his going home just means that maybe we're one step closer to Jesus coming because I know the David is going to be an officer in the army of God. Once again I'll be praying for the whole family God bless

“ David was just a baby when we came to Brcc in 1991. What a joy it has been to watch him grow into such an amazing young man who loves and serves the Lord. One of my favorite memories is a mission trip Bill and I took with David and Hubert to Brazil. You really get to know people on a trip like that. What a joy. A life well lived even though it was short. You were loved by many and will be missed by so many. Cherish your special memories dear Nolen family

“ I am so sorry for your loss! I thank your family for showing us what true Christians are! I can't help but believe that you have done such a great job of showing your son what a true Christian is that Jesus wanted to enjoy David's love too! I wish that there was something that I could do to comfort you. May God's love embrace your whole family!

“ I can't imagine the grief you are going through right now. There are no words to express the loss of a child. We grieve with you but also share the joy of knowing the Lord has his arms of mercy, grace, compassion, and love around your whole family. His Word brings great comfort and Lam. 3:32,33 comes to mind. "Though he brings grief, he will show compassion, so great is his unfailing love. For he does not willingly bring affliction or grief to the children of men." Mt. 5:4 "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." Other scriptures I hope that are comforting: Isa 57:1,2 Rev.21:4 II Cor. 1:3,4 and I Peter 1:3-9.

“ I am so sorry for your tragic loss. I never knew him, but know his family. As I read his obituary I'm stricken once again by the question of why such a wonderful person who is helping so many in so many ways, was taken entirely too soon.

Please know that you can do this.
It is so hard but God is able.

Prayers.

I'm so sorry.

“ It was a wonderful thing to watch David grow, mentally, physically and most of all Spiritually. I remember him as a rambunctious little guy running and playing with his many friends. It seemed just a short period of time before he was graduating from High School. I remember when he delivered a sermon at Sunday Worship. My last memory of David was when he assisted us in the Yeshua Society. I'm not sure that there was anyone who didn't get along with David. And now, he's gone at a young age, called home to meet The Jesus who he loved in this life. Our prayers go out to the entire Nolen family. God Bless.

“ Hubert, Tonia, and family, we were so saddened by learning of your irreplaceable loss! There's not words to express deep sorrow for situations like this. Of course we are praying for all of you. It was a joy to read David's obit and learn of what a man of God he was. He surely blessed more people in his short life than most do in a long life. Can't imagine the loss the new wife feels, either. So sorry we didn't get to the services. We love you, Jack and Rowena
