“ Please know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers, you have been for a long time. I can only tell you it will be one of the hardest things you will face. Lean on God's Love and trust that Uncle Pooch is in a much better place. I will miss him so much, I loved growing up in the Boothe family, esp. in our younger years. I have fond memories of my pretty and cute little cousins that came in from Indiana to see us. Our Dad's the Boothe brothers were one of a kind, they were good Dad's, good providers, good husbands, good people, that is so hard to find in people today. My wish for them is that they are together in HEAVEN today and having a Grand Reunion. I have fond memories of all of you that I will cherish forever. Please do keep in touch with us. The Boothe family could be strong again. Love to all of you, and God Bless YOU.

Love and Prayers,
Cousin and Neice
Danita Boothe
