

Finnick Wayne Solari

February 21, 2022 - March 2, 2022

Finnick Wayne Solari passed peacefully in the arms of his loving mothers on Wednesday, March 2, 2022 at St. Vincent Women's Hospital in Indianapolis, IN. Finnicky Wayne was born on February 21, 2022 to Kaitlyn F. (Redman) Solari and Morgan L. Solari.

Finnicky's life was an extra precious gift to his family who had long awaited his arrival. He wanted to make sure everyone knew just how special he was by arriving with an extra 21st chromosome, an extra right thumb, and extra blonde hair. In his 9 short days here on Earth, he was known for flipping his wrists and sticking out his tongue which showed that he clearly had a sassy personality. He also loved getting attention and having his head rubbed by his mamas and NICU family. His mamas believe that, like his big brother, he would have loved chocolate milk (as his mama drank plenty throughout pregnancy). Everyone who met him ironically agreed that his favorite color was likely green, and that he would have loved dinosaurs. In place of the DAISY award, "The Finnicky Award" was created and given in the form of a dinosaur pin to all of his loving caretakers during his time in the St. Vincent Women's NICU. It has become his legacy.

Finnicky touched the lives of many and was deeply loved by his family and friends. He is survived by his mama, Kaitlyn F. (Redman) Solari, mommy, Morgan L. Solari, and big brother, Arrow James Solari; grandparents, Kimberly and William Redman, Janine and Jeffrey Solari; aunts, Mackenzie Warrick, Karagan Redman, and Kamryn Adkins; and great-grandmother, Sandra Sorukas whose unwavering prayers for Finnicky have blessed him since before he was even created. He was preceded in death by his great-uncle and namesake, Wayne Kwiatkowski.

“ Dear Finnick Wayne,

Your Mommy (Morgan Louise) and I have been friends for so long. So long that she might as well be my sister! And your Mommy (Kat), I love her just the same! I knew I loved you even before you were born, I prayed many prayers for you and both of your Mommies. I may not have held you physically, but I held you in my heart, and I will continue to do so. Your “Aunt” Carleigh will love you always.

“ Dear Finnick, your mommy(Morgan Louise Solari) has been my best friend since we were 15 years old. I have loved her as a sister since we first met. When she met your mama, I was so filled with joy and love for the both of them. I have prayed for you since the day I found out about you in your mama’s belly. Prayed for you all and sent so many loving thoughts your way. I couldn’t wait to be one of your honorary “aunts.” I wish I could I have met you, held you, and watch you grow up and meet my kids too eventually. I just wanted to let you know that I have loved you this whole time, the same as I love your family. And I know you are getting all the sweet lovings in Heaven with Nana and Papa. You are in wonderful hands with them.

Love, Marissa

“ Morgan and Kat,

I cannot begin to imagine the strength, love, and sorrow both of you carry right now, not only for yourselves, but for your family. I can only offer my love and prayers in a time like this. I have seen the lovely parts of y’all’s journeys y’all have shared, and I know you both pour your hearts and souls into the care and love of your children. I pray during yalls grieving y’all both remember to pour some of that same love and care into yourselves. I pray y’all remember how amazing, loving, compassionate, and worthy both of you are not only as individuals, but as a family.
