Dear Dave, Janet, Debbie and Kevin

I have so many fond memories of being at the Jarrett household and spending time with my best friend Dave. When I would see your dad at Springhurst, he always enjoyed telling me about Dave and I throwing rocks on the roof of his house! Did we actually do that? I am sure when Dave and I would practice playing our trumpets, it had to drive our folks crazy!

Your mother and dad were loving caring people who trusted Jesus as Lord. We can rest assured that they are enjoying eternal life together with their Savior.

I know from experience, saying goodbye to our parents is one of the most difficult times in our lives. I praise God that He gives us grace to go on!

I am sorry that I was unable to attend services today. Vera and I send our deepest condolences, you all are in our thoughts and prayers.

Our Love,
Greg & Vera Murphy

Harold was indeed a true father -in-law. I enjoyed his intellect and stories. He actually was the first person who helped me start my business. We got along great and he gave me praise all the time about starting TJ's Chimney Sweep and sticking with it to success!

I'll miss him but will see him again someday in heaven. TJ Robinson
