“ I am really going to miss you Jeff. You were the best neighbor to have. When me, Chad and the girls moved here almost 24 years , I had no idea the friendships that would be formed and that our children would all end up being great friends. You never met a stranger and would help out anyone that came to you. You were just that kind of guy. You married a fine lady in Amy and raised two amazing kids. With Michael now living next to me, I always say that "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree". He and Lyndsey are wonderful neighbors and when I see Michael out mowing the grass, with Lennox on his lap, I always remember you on the mower , with either Ashley or Michael . Alot of people loved you and are going to miss you forever. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Jeff was one of guys I knew from my time at General Steel and I really liked him. He was a friendly character who could talk a mile a minute and everything he had to say was interesting or entertaining. Simply put, he made work fun!

I lost track of him over the years as he changed jobs driving trucks for several different steel companies but he always seemed to find his way back to General Steel for a visit before it closed.

I know that he loved his wife Amy and adored the children they had together, family was important to him. He liked traveling and doing things with them whenever he could. The last I heard about him was that he was still driving steel trucks around.

Without Jeff, our world will be different but as time passes all of the memories each of us has of him will brighten our thoughts and improve our days. Jeff, was a "one in a million kind of person" and I'm glad I knew him.

“ I remember when my kids and ex-husband used to run around with Jeff and Amy. Your kid's were small. Jeff worked with my ex and recently he was working with my brother at (what I know as Action Steel. I can never remember the new name.) I was talking to my brother and he gave the phone to Jeff. It was so nice to catch up with him. My heart felt condolences to Amy and the family. Prayers for everyone. Jeff and Amy are good people.

“ I knew Jeff as a teenager. It meant a lot to me when he reached out to me three years ago when I lost my brother Matt. Looking back, I see how he always had it in him to be the strong family man he became. Although I haven't seen him in probably 35 years or more, it sounds like he loved and was greatly loved and was an honorable husband, dad, pawpaw, worker and friend. What a great legacy to leave to all those who knew him.

I'm so sorry for your loss. I pray that the God of all comfort will embrace and console you during your time of grieving and after. You are in my heart and prayers during this time.
