“ First I want to say I'm sorry for your lost (family, friends). Kevin was more than just my friend he was my hero. Kevin is a amazing loving caring person and has a beautiful soul. I've never met anyone like him and I know I never will. He truly is one of kind. He inspired me to want to do better for myself. He helped me when no one else was there for me and I hope he knows how much that meant to me. He accepted me for who I was. We had our down falls but everyone does. I'm just so thankful I got the chance to recently to tell him how sorry I was for our disagreements. I just don't understand why he had to go not like this. He didn't deserve to go this way no one does. I can't stop thinking about him. Its been about year since Kevin and I lived with one another and still to this day people that I'm close to I always tell them about Kevin. I looked up to Kevin alot. This is really hard for me to grasp. Kevin will never be forgotten. I hope your watching down on me. I promise you Kevin I'll keep improving in my life for you because I know that would have made you happy. I love you (onmies) That's one of our silly names we would call each other. Until we meet again my love always and for ever jasmine

“ I have never met any of Kevin's family before. Kevin worked at Wendy's Mt Comfort for me. I was his GM. He was a kind person and did good work. I also, knew one of his friends Richard Thomas who also worked for me as well. May you find peace and comfort during this difficult time. God Bless!
