“ Dee, I am so sorry to read of Margaret's passing. My heart broke when I read it. Margaret was my Angel when my Mom passed away. She brought comfort to me by just talking to me when it happened. Margaret was a very special lady. I will always remember when we would sit outside and chat about anything and everything. We would fix the world in our conversations. She was a blessing to me in many ways. I thought of her often and wished I knew how she was. I seen your 5 generation picture in the paper and noticed she had not aged much if any at all. I'm not sure if she knew or not but we did move to Kentucky in Oct. 2004. Richard passed away on May 29, 2010 from heart problems and I moved back to Greenfield to be near the kids and buried him in Asbury Cemetery in Morristown. Ten months later on March 29, 2011, I lost my oldest son, David, to Pancreatic Cancer. I would love to talk to you but I don't know how to get ahold of you. I loved Margaret and will always consider her one of the best people I have ever had the honor of knowing. Please know that you and your family are in my heart, thoughts and prayers. Maybe one day we will cross paths. God bless and be with you all as you lay Margaret to rest.....Love and Prayers, Agnes
