“ The most humble God fearing man I have ever met in my life. He will be missed on this side but will be waiting for us to be welcomed into the kingdom with him and he is now in a complete new body that we will all have that know and love Jesus. Thank you Mark for your friendship and your encouragement that you so often expressed.

“ Few years back I met Mark when he was still driving out to EH - I was Beth's asst tennis coach at EH - I could tell them he was an amazing soul! I met him again a couple yrs ago as he and his boys would come into The Harbour when I managed the cafe. I was always excited when his family would come in!!! They would stay for hours just talking and visiting. I totally enjoyed the presence of this family!!! Beth would be on one side of the cafe with her ginger peach tea while Mark and the Boys would dine of our coffee. I tell you - our connections are brief but when I saw the love

Beth and the boys had for Mark and their Dad — made me always think about my future as well. The love and strength was so effortless and strong in their family.

I met Mark when he was able to drive, then at the cafe he could no longer drive but was still able to walk then eventually with a walker ... the cafe closed and I didnt get a chance to see he him lately as we moved back to Indy but sure wish I had. At least to have been able to tell Mark how much his conversations meant to me and his presence at the cafe - we'll - I was so very pleased to serve him coffee!!!

You will be forever in my thoughts Mark - such a beautiful soul - I am sure you are enjoying your walks and talks with Jesus as well!!!

Beth and Boys - you are in my thoughts and prayers too at this time. I know your love for God will keep your family strong and although this is a sad time - please know we love you and the the boys and Mark - we'll i am sure he is loving his new home in heaven free from the als, sittting and drinking coffee with Jesus and his loved ones up there!

“ My son went to preschool at his church back in 2001. He was always causing trouble with the other kids so they made him go and sit with Pastor Judy. But every day he would continue to get in trouble. Then one day I realized after talking to my son that he enjoyed going in and sitting with Mark and talking, so he would get in trouble on purpose. It was his favorite part of going to school. I'm thankful for his talks with my son. He was a blessing.

“ In 2012 I faced some of the most darkest days of my life. Mark willingly and without reservations stood in the gap for me; lifting me and my family up in daily prayer. Additionally through wise counsel Mark reminded me of my identity in Christ and encouraged me to allow God's Holy Spirit to guide me through the uncertain days ahead. I am so very grateful to my Lord for the common bond Mark and I shared as fellow Pastors and even more grateful for the brotherhood and friendship we developed over the past several years. I pray God's Richest Blessings and watchcare over all Mark's family and friends. He was a Very Special Servant of God who will be greatly missed!
