“ Dear Elaine -I am a very old friend of Susie's - worked with her at the bank in different areas, and long time friend - I have been monitoring her progress through e-mails I have received, and am looking forward to visiting her soon - was giving her some time to recoup a bit. I just heard the news about your husband and am so upset to hear of your loss. What a tragic and difficult time for you right on the heels of your sister's stroke. I cannot imagine all you are going through right now, and can only offer my sincere sympathy.
I was widowed about 5 years ago, and offer you a shoulder if you ever need to talk. Even though I know you don't know me, I am sincere in my offer. I am sure we have met in the past.
Please know my thoughts and prayers will be with you at this sad time.
Should you think of it, please let Susie know I think of her every day, love her, and will be visiting her very soon.
Fondly,
Debbie Rowe

“ Hello Elaine, Brett and Kevin,
I'm very sorry for your loss of Noble it's especially hard this time of year. I know, we lost Dad in December and Grandma the week of Thanksgiving.
You had a very nice service for him and what a turn out! It must be comforting to know he was so well respected in the community.
We must stay in touch as there aren't many of us left!

Love, Sandy (Marx) Allgood

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. " NOBBIE" was a mans man and someone who I wish I'd known a lot better. I've always had him in my heart, and will continue to have. I think he has left everyone with a hole in our heart. I believe he is in heaven with my uncle Herb,Aunt Lula,Pap,& Grandma. He and grampa are probably fishing in heaven. I'll bet the fishing there is really good. Keep your heads up and your love for him and each other will fill that void in your heart.
