“ Pat was a sweet, kind compassionate nurse. I worked many weekends with her. I can hear her now saying "Gee Kid" followed by something profound. Just remembering brings a smile.

“ Pat was always my favorite aunt. Bill was my Dad Don's younger brother. I never heard anyone say a bad thing about her. I always remember that she would start a sentence a lot by saying kid. I took her and my Mom Bernice to see Elvis Pressley at the Indiana Convention Center. I still have the ticket stub. It was on October 5, 1974. She was 51 and my Mom was 50. They acted like teenagers at this concert. When Elvis passed out his scarves, we got close to getting one. She worked hard her whole life and one of the most amazing things about Pat is that she never remarried. She lived 57 years after Bill passed away. She was always a beautiful lady inside and out. She loved Greg and Susan and dedicated her life to them, and to Susan's family too. I remember a lot of things about her. I really never heard her say a bad word about anyone. There will never be another Pat Snider. I know that she was really proud of Susan and the wonderful person she is. Susan was always there for her mother. Heaven gained another angel!
