“ With all the IU fans here in Indiana; I knew I could always count on Randy to help me root for our Kentucky Wildcats. Randy was not one to jump on the band wagon he was a loyal fan. No matter if the team was good or bad the Wildcats was his team & he stood behind them. I know he will be watching with me next year too. My fondest memory of Randy was " that sneaky little laugh he had". When I think of that it brings a smile to my face. To Marcia & his family; i know there is a hole in your hearts right now & no words can mend that. Try to take comfort in knowing Randy loved you as much as you loved him & he will be in our hearts forever.

“

Randy,

You will be deeply missed every day. You were my best friend a day will not go by that I will not tell a story about an adventure that me, you and our close friends went on! Those memories make me laugh and I thank you for everyone of them. You were there for me during the worst of times and the best of times. You had the biggest heart and would do anything to help family, friends and even strangers. You renewed in me the value of family and friendship and the importance of strengthening those bonds!

(Me and Harlan will pick up the 104-3 cornhole record!)

I love you brother!!!!
