“ Wonderful memories as kids and adults- getting in and out of trouble, riding bikes, going to movies, hanging out at your dad's shop in College Point, barbecues, dinners, birthdays, blowing up fireworks on 79th street. Then reconnecting in Florida after almost 30 years – it was almost like the time never passed, visiting in PSL & Stuart, buying the Lincoln from you (was a great car btw). Despite not being blood relatives you, Ellen & Steve were always cousins. Rest easy cuz reunited with Mom, Dad & Steve. Going to miss you, but you live forever in our memories.

“ Smoking in Bob's garage in Forest Hills and Bob's father opens the garage door. To this day, I still remember his black leather shoes with a buckle on it, we were looking down and that's the first thing we saw. We knew what was coming. I said, " Nice to see you Mr. Aivazian" as he grabbed Bobby by the ear and escorted him into the house for a "talk." You will be missed Bobby. When I think of the things we did, it puts a smile on my face. We were young, wild, and free. We had a blast, best time of my life!

“ Fond memory: 1974, Forest Hills NY. Basement of Bobby's home, AKA "our nightclub" Bobby was about 15 years old at the time. His brother (my best friend Steve) and I were 13. My brother Andrew and a few other friends were there dancing to "Kung Fu Fighting." It was the beginning of the Disco age in New York. Bobby was a great dancer, probably taught by his sister Ellen. The ladies loved him. Those were the days.

Rest In Peace my brother Bobby. I'll see you on the other side!

“words do not convey the sting I feel of loosing you dear Bob. I can only say in my heart that I was happy that we were able to reconnect after all of these years. With life's crazy twists and turns we were led back to one another. So many memories to share of us growing up and laughing (your laugh was the best and one I shall always remember) we laughed we faught we ran around the neighborhood creating havoc, playing ringalario, capture the flag, football, riding our mopeds, handball against the wall in the alley and jumping in your swimming pool on hot days! These are day I shall always cherish as an immigrant coming to this country not knowing a word of English and meeting my new cousins for the first time lol. But as years progressed in the end I was thankful I had the opportunity to share conversation with you over phone calls during these last tough few years and months! You were always in my prayers and we talked and shared of days gone by. I was thankful I had those times. I love you cousin and I want to share from the Good book as they say but God's word that I cherish in my heart as I have said goodbye to so many of our family members that I have loved and miss deeply over the years. We shall all be together one day when the Lord returns to gather his people and we shall live together in eternity ! 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18. See you at the return Bobby! Sleep tight Love you Seda.xoxoxo

“ I have been truly blessed to have grown up surrounded by such great men in my family. Sadly they have all gone way before we wanted. The photos and memories remind me of the beautiful, close family we had.

Craziest memory: well there is a fast food place near Kings Island that regretted closing breakfast on us. :)

Love you Bobby, Rest In Peace

Davey
